I understand that the information I requested above and am authorizing for release MAY include information about testing, diagnosis, or treatment for physical or mental/psychiatric illness, drug/alcohol abuse, HIV/AIDS and related conditions, and assault. I understand that the information I am authorizing to be released may be redisclosed by the recipient and no longer protected by state or federal privacy regulations. The recipient of the information may be charged for the information released. There is no charge for releasing the information directly to my health care provider. I also understand that this authorization is completely voluntary and that I have the right to refuse to sign it. My refusal to sign the authorization or to release my information will have no effect on my ability to obtain treatment.

If my information contains federal drug and alcohol records, my records are protected under federal regulations governing confidentiality of alcohol and drug abuse patient records, and a notice will accompany a disclosure.

This authorization will remain in effect for one year from the date of my signature, unless I specify an earlier date in this space_____. I further understand that this authorization may be withdrawn in writing at any time, (see Notice of Privacy Practices), but the withdrawal will not apply to information that has already been released in response to this authorization.

After my health information is released, the information may be re-released by the recipient and may no longer be protected by law.
